THE 9th HKUST UG MATH COMPETITION
(for talented students with a mathematical mind)

The Department of Mathematics will host the 9th HKUST UG Math Competition on Saturday, 27 April 2024 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at HKUST. The competition consists of the following two categories of written tests:

- Junior Competition: This is restricted to current HKUST first- and second-year undergraduate students. Problems will be drawn from single and multivariable calculus, linear algebra, mathematical analysis, probability, and other sources.

- Senior Competition: This is open to all HKUST undergraduates. Problems can include materials from any undergraduate mathematics courses, and other sources.

Both competitions will test ingenuity in mathematics in addition to mathematical knowledge.

For the past papers of the competition, you may visit the following website for reference.
